

Guaranteed Ride Home – What’s “in” & what’s “out”

What’s “IN”	What’s “OUT”
You rode your bike to work and have an emergency	Trip to work.
You rode transit to work and have an emergency	You took a taxi to work.
You rode in a vanpool to work and have an emergency	Scheduled doctor’s appointment or surgery
You rode in a carpool to work and have an emergency	To pick up a recovered passport or baggage at the airport.
You get up to 8 rides per year	Poor bus service home.
Each taxi trip can be up to 60 miles	Too many items to carry on the bus.
Tip your driver, this part is not covered.	Employee vehicle will not start, or vehicle is in the shop
Employee or family illness	To attend an off-site meeting or because of attending an off-site meeting
Working late unexpectedly	Too much to drink after a business party after work
Missing a regular ride home because of work	Locked keys in car or lost car keys
Other emergencies that happen during your work hours	Transit disruption or delay
Taxi can take you from work to home	Snow or other weather reason
Taxi can take you from work to hospital	Do not have or lost my bus pass
Taxi can take you from work to P&R	Got off at the wrong bus stop. Needed a ride to the park-and-ride because not sure how to get there from current location
Taxi can take you from work to child’s school	Early dismissal from work when the employee can take available bus service home
Taxi can make a stop for reasons related to your emergency i.e. pharmacy to pick up an RX.	Trip to the park and ride because bus service timing does not allow the employee to get to a pre scheduled doctor appointment in time.
